Rule 1940.8. Mediator Compensation.

Mediators shall be compensated for their orientation services at a rate to be established by the Court. Unless otherwise ordered, the rate established for the custody mediation orientation session shall be divided between the parties. The cost of the orientation session may be waived by the Court for any party qualifying to proceed in forma pauperis.